Tuesdays 1pm - 3:50pm

BP 6100 Biblical Preaching

3 Credits

Instructor: Dr. Eddie Byun

Email: e.byun@ttgu.ac.kr

Course Description

This course will teach the student the basic steps in preparing an expository sermon. It will also offer ways to prepare the student to plan his or her preaching through a preaching calendar and create a filing system in becoming a better communicator.

Course Objective

By the time the student completes the course, the student should be able to:

1. Go through the steps of developing a well-supported single-idea expository sermon
2. Deliver a 10-12 minute sermon without notes
3. Both evaluate and receive evaluation from peers to improve in their preaching

Grading

Class Attendance and Assignments 50%

Sermons 50%

Other Grading Info

- In order for the student to get credit, he/she has to attend more than 3/4 of the classes. Based on a weekly held class, if a student misses 4 or more classes out of 15 classes the student will receive an F(NP).

- Excused Absences: Absences for the following reasons may be regarded as excused absence by handing in the Report of Absence to the teaching professor, and be counted as present. However, if the total number of absences including the excused absences is 1/3 of the class or more, the student will receive an F.

1. Death of one's own or spouse's [grandparents, parents, siblings], death of spouse or children up to 1 week

Academic Integrity Policy

The faculty and administration of Torch Trinity take academic integrity very seriously and will not tolerate cheating (on exams and quizzes) or plagiarism. All cases of cheating or plagiarism must be reported to the Dean of Chapel and Student Life and informed to the Dean of Academic Programs, and if necessary, further investigated. The Student Life & Scholarship Committee determines guilt or innocence according to a rigorous procedure. The following are the administrative actions prescribed by the faculty for those caught cheating or plagiarizing:

1. Administrative Actions for Cheating

A. For the first offense of cheating during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the following procedures are applied:

- 1) An automatic "F" letter grade for the class.
- 2) The student offender will meet with the Dean of Chapel and Student Life and sign an Acknowledgement of Integrity Infraction form.
- 3) The student offender will not be considered for merit scholarships and TSMS scholarships from the following semester.

B. For the second offense of cheating during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the student will be permanently dismissed from the school.

2. Administrative Actions for Plagiarism

A. For the first offense of plagiarism during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the following procedures are applied:

- 1) An automatic "F" letter grade for the paper. Rewriting is not permitted.
- 2) Student should re-read the article (Chang, Steven S. H. "The Problem of Plagiarism: A guide for Students and Educators of Theology" TTJ 8, no. 1 (Nov. 2005): 201-218 [downloadable from TTGU website], and write a paper on "Plagiarism and Christian Ministry" of about 750 words or 3 pages double-spaced.

B. For the second offense of plagiarism during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the following procedures are applied:

- 1) A permanent "F" letter grade for the entire course. Retaking the course will not replace the "F" grade. The failed course and the retaken course grades will both be calculated in the student's cumulative grade point average.

- 2) The student offender will not be considered for merit scholarships and TSMS scholarships from the following semester.
- 3) For the PhD program, for the second offense of plagiarism during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the offending student is permanently dismissed from the school.

C. For the third offense of plagiarism during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the offending student is permanently dismissed from the school.

* For each offence mentioned above, a copy of the Acknowledgement of Integrity Infraction form signed by the offender will be placed in the student's permanent file and the record should be kept at the Office of Chapel and Student Life.

*The student guilty of first-time cheating or second-time plagiarism may not be eligible for recognition of merit at graduation, and will be automatically removed from any official position, such as student council leadership, chapel worship team, etc. for at least one semester.

Note: The faculty and administration have decided to require that all student papers be submitted to www.turnitin.com as of Fall 2007.

"I acknowledge that I have read and accept the TTGU Academic Integrity Covenant and will abide by the provisions and penalties therein."
