What is Expository Preaching?

- Expository Preaching: “Expository preaching is the communication of a biblical concept, derived from and transmitted through a historical, grammatical, and literary study of a passage in its context, which the Holy Spirit first applies to the personality and experience of the preacher, then through the preacher, applies to the hearers.” (Robinson, p. 21)

Examples ...

Expositional – Textual – Topical

Because it is possible to do a “textual exposition” with one verse:

It is also possible to do a “topical exposition”

Why would the following NOT qualify as expository preaching?

Psalm 150:1, 6

150:1 Praise the Lord!

Praise God in his sanctuary;

praise him in his mighty heavens!

6 Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!

Praise the Lord!

- I. The rediscovery of praise will come with the wholeness of our belief
- II. The rediscovery of praise will come when we relearn the meaning of worship
- III. The rediscover of praise goes hand in hand with service

John 13:30 “And it was night”

Intro: Night is usually a time of fear but God has much to say about night.

- It can be a time of adversity and affliction (Isa 21:12)
- It can be a time of death (John 9:4)
- It can be a time of concern (John 3:1)
- It can be a time of rejection (John 13:30)
- It can be a time of rejoicing (Act 16:25-31)

Genesis 25-30

- Intro: Jacob is an important person in the OT
 - o His birth
 - o His birthright
 - o His deception
 - o His fleeing from his family
 - o His marriage
 - o He met God
