The Student Life & Scholarship Committee determines guilt or innocence according to a rigorous procedure. The following are the administrative actions prescribed by the faculty for those caught cheating or plagiarizing:

1. Administrative Actions for Cheating

A. For the first offense of cheating during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the following procedures are applied:

- 1) An automatic "F" letter grade for the class.
- 2) The student offender will meet with the Dean of Chapel and Student Life and sign an Acknowledgement of Integrity Infraction form.
- 3) The student offender will not be considered for merit scholarships and TSMS scholarships from the following semester.

B. For the second offense of cheating during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the student will be permanently dismissed from the school.

B. For the second offense of plagiarism during the student's enrollment at Torch Trinity, the following procedures are applied:

*The student guilty of first-time cheating or second-time plagiarism may not be eligible for recognition of merit at graduation.

*The student offender will be automatically removed from any official position, such as student council leadership, chapel worship team, etc. for at least one semester.
